THE LIBIS GARDENS

Akron, Ohio, February 17, 1944.

To Our Friends and Customers:

Because of war conditions necessitating various economies we shall not distribute catalogues as had been customary. For the season of 1944 we have an adequate supply of bulbs and plants, including perennial, annual and vegetable plants. Some of the bulbs and plans we will mention as follows:

GLADIOLUS—large bulbs in a full range of colors of many choice varieties.

DAFFODILS—more than sixty varieties in the newer shades and colors; also the standard varieties.

LILIES—Regal, Madonna and Umbellatum.

TULIPS—Darwin tulips of the prominent standard varieties.

CHRYSANTHEMUMS—a full line; also latest developed and publicised varieties in various colors.

COLUMBINES—long spurred, in shades of pink, rose, blue, white and red.

DAISIES—wonderful, lacinated, all-double and plain petalled.

DELPHINIUMS—the very popular all-double "Giant Pacific" strain, in shades of blue, lavender, purple and white.

HEMEROCALLIS—light yellow to deep orange, blooming from mid-May to late September.

HEMEROCALLIS—Dr. Leon Leonian's hybrids of the red,

You are welcome to come to see the flowers in bloom. That is a good way to select varieties for your own garden.

We thank you for your generous response last season, and invite you to come as usual to The Libis Gardens for Bulbs, Plants, Flowers and Decoratives, which it is our aim to supply with products of highest quality.

purple, maroon color class—more than forty varieties of entirely new colors in Day Lilies.

IRISES—bearded, Siberian, kaempferi and dwarf. New varieties in all classes of irises.

PEONIES—a large list including those of the highest ratings.

PHLOXES—Standard and patented varieties.

PYRETHRUM—in pink, rose and deep red.

TRITOMAS—the new hardy class, mostly in the lighter shades, early to late blooming.

Dicentra (bleeding heart), Gypsophila, Helenium, Heliopsis, Liatris, Monarda, Myrtle, Pachysandra, Thalictrum, Spiraea, Sedums, and other plants.

Annual FLOWER and VEGETABLE plants, May and June.

ROSES—top quality, two year Northern Ohio field grown, best procurable. We urge you to order early.
